TWO POLICEMEN ARE EMPLOYED "TEMPORARILY"

Borough council Monday night deferred action on the appointment of two regular policemen to fill vacancies left by resignations, but both men recommended by Burgess William G. Weaver will go to work on the police force as "extra" help, until council acts to make these or other appointments permanent.

One, Patrolman Paul B. Shearer, who for several years has been working as an "extra," will continue as such but will work a regular position in place of Patrolman Kenneth Tawney, whose resignation became effective Sunday. Shearer took over Tawney's shift Monday night.

Raymond E. Menges, top man on the civil service list, who was also recommended by the burgess for permanent appointment, will fill Shearer's former role on the police force, working extra when needed, Weaver said.

"Excellent Support"
In his first monthly report to the borough council, submitted Monday night, Burgess Weaver said:

"The individual officers of the police department are giving me excellent support. Parking tickets from every officer on the force have been received. Our efforts to correct the double-parking problem are bearing some fruit and we will continue our drive to free the streets for uninterrupted travel.

"Two meetings of the entire police force were held during January, both of which were attended by Councilmen Hummelbaugh and Hartzell of the safety committee. I believe that meetings of this kind will bear much fruit for a better understanding of each other's problems.

"Measurements were taken for replacement pieces of the uniforms of the police. We want to present a good appearance at all times.

Regrets Resignation
"I regret the resignation of Patrolman Tawney. He was a good officer and will be missed. In this connection I respectfully recommend the appointment of two patrolmen as regular officers. This, I believe, can be done with very little additional expense over the cost of a regular substitute officer. It will enable better scheduling of duty hours, avoid some contention and above all give the town better police protection."

The annual audit and financial report of the borough shows that Patrolman Shearer during 1949 received $1,405.13 as a "substitute" officer. Salaries of other members of the department were: Chief Robert C. Harpster, $2,546.40; patrolmen, Kenneth Tawney and Daniel Miller, $1,920; Ralph Fissel and Charles W. Culp, Jr., $1,828.80.

The burgess reported receipts of his office for January of $898.54, divided as follows: 162 parking violations, $162; five building permits, $55; one digging permit, $17; two sewer permits, $1.50; and theater tax, $663.04.

$54,000 Construction
The burgess said seven building permits issued in January represented construction amounting to $54,000.

The safety committee was authorized to purchase a new typewriter for the burgess's office at a cost not to exceed $126.22.

A request from Dr. C. H. Heidt for parking space in front of his office at 124 Carlisle street was referred to the safety committee.

Council also referred to its finance and sewer committees a request from the Board of Health for approximately $325 to purchase eight new metal refuse receptacles for the business streets and to finance a "cleanup" campaign during April.

George Burner, a member of the Health Board, appeared before council. He said the trash cans would cost $30 to $40 each. The board, he said, would like to purchase posters for uses on the light poles similar to those for Dollar Days, and to award $30 in prizes in a poster contest for school children in connection with the cleanup campaign. Borough Engineer LeRoy H. Winebrenner said that the borough cleanup usually takes place about the middle of May, after furnace fires are out.

Urges New Traffic Light
George Olinger, 137 South Washington street, appeared before council to ask why a traffic control light could not be placed at South Washington and West Middle streets. He was informed by Councilman Hartzell.

FILES FOR DIVORCE
Wilbur T. Stein, Harrisburg, filed suit in Dauphin county court Monday for a divorce from Mrs. Margaret S. Stein, Gettysburg R. 2, on charges of indignities. They were married in Harrisburg September 28, 1946.

Third Son Graduates From Penn State; Two Others Are Students

The third of seven sons in the Harold C. Myers family, of York Springs, was graduated from Pennsylvania State college today. Two more are enrolled at the college and two younger brothers in Biglerville high school have Penn State plans in their future.

Theodore Richard Myers is the only Adams countian among the nearly 800 men and women who received degrees at the mid-year commencement exercises at Penn State this afternoon. He received the degree of bachelor of science in industrial arts and plans to enter the teaching profession.

His mother and grandmother, Mrs. C. P. Brinkerhoff, went to State college to witness the graduation exercises at which James Milholland, acting president of the college, awarded the degrees and William G. Avirett, education editor of the New York Herald Tribune, delivered the address.

Two Others Graduated
Last year a snow storm prevented Mr. and Mrs. Myers, who operate a general store in York Springs, from attending the commencement exercises for their first son, Kenneth, when he received his degree in electrical engineering. Since August 15, he has been employed by the Metropolitan Edison company, working out of Gardners.

Last June Harold, Jr., was graduated from Penn State with a degree in industrial arts. Now he is teaching in Washington, D. C.

Sidney, whose wife is employed in an office at State college, while he completes his studies, will graduate in June. He is specializing in architectural engineering.

Arthur Myers, youngest of the brothers now in college, will graduate next February in agricultural engineering.

Three of the brothers went to college under GI bill of rights. Harold served in the Medical Corps in the Philippines and Kenneth was in the Navy in the South Pacific. Sidney, the third veteran in the family, lives with his wife in a trailer colony at the college.

The younger brothers in high school are Edward, who will graduate in May, and Donald, who is a sophomore. Their older brothers graduated from the same high school.

All of the boys are interested in music and the family has been represented in the Biglerville school band for more than a decade. Harold Myers, father of the seven youths, has conducted a general store in York Springs for more than a quarter of a century. He is a son of Spencer Myers, who was a Dillsburg merchant. Mrs. Harold Myers is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brinkerhoff, York Springs.

Women's Division Dorm Stormed By "Dateless" Students; Call Cops

The women students of Gettysburg college who reside at Huber hall are "campused" and their boy friends don't like it.

Approximately 50 of the latter staged a "demonstration" Monday night which brought borough police to the scene.

From unofficial sources it was learned that the Huber hall girls are being confined to the dormitory after 7 p. m. each day until some one of their number confesses to the theft of money, reported to have been stolen at the hall.

This leaves the college boys who have girl friends in Huber hall without "dates."

Borough police reported today that they received a call about 11:15 p. m. Monday night from Dean Dorothy Gregg Lee, head of the women's department at the college, reporting that "they were having trouble at Huber hall with some of the boys."

Borough Officer Daniel Miller answered the call of distress. With him went Borough Fire Marshal Eugene S. Sickles. Miller reported they "found about 50 students (male) trying to open some of the windows to get into some of the girls' rooms."

The crowd was finally dispersed, but at the request of Dean Lee, Officer Miller remained to "patrol" the part of the campus adjacent to Huber hall until 2 a. m.

Later this morning Dean Lee appealed to Burgess William G. Weaver for police "protection" again tonight. One of the extra police officers will be assigned to see that college boys do not repeat their attempt to see their girl friends.

The unofficial source said that this was the second time within three weeks that residents of Huber hall had been "campused" until college authorities learned the identity of the person stealing money at the hall. The previous campus order was "lifted" when it is claimed, a woman student confessed and was expelled.

Councilman John D. Teeter presented blueprints and plans for a new sewage treatment plant to the borough council at its regular meeting Monday night at the engine house, but the only action taken was the appointment by Council President H. M. Oyler of a committee to confer with the Gettysburg Municipal Authority.

Named to this committee were Councilmen Teeter, George D. March and Fred Hummelbaugh.

The plans were obtained, Mr. Teeter said, from Richard J. Harman, Harrisburg consulting engineer. He said they would shortly be approved by the state, and urged that action be taken so that work on the sewer plant could be started this summer.

Teeter recommended that the plans be turned over to the authority which operates the water system, with power to act. "We should get started on this project this summer," Teeter said. "If we act now we can build this year," he added.

Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bullett gave his opinion that the sewer plant project could not be turned over to the authority without the adoption of an ordinance. The authority might not accept the project, he also said.

Teeter presented Chambersburg and Hanover ordinances which assess the cost based on the use of water. Chambersburg, he said, was on a consumption basis, because all water is metered. Hanover, he said, has a flat rate.

The number of Boy Scouts in the York-Adams area has increased from 2,860 last year to 3,429, David M. Dickson, scout field executive, told the local Rotary club Monday evening at its regular meeting in the YWCA.

Speaking during a program commemorating the 40th anniversary of Boy Scouting, Dickson said that while the area as a whole has had a 22 percent increase in the number of scouts during the last year the Black Walnut district, which now has 298 scouts, has had a 35 percent increase.

A complete change in the boy scouting program has been effected during the past year, Dickson noted. Under the new program, the cubbing and scouting ages have been reduced by one year, and a senior scouting program is being inaugurated for all boys over 14. The senior program consists largely of service activities, to the community, church and other organizations, Dickson noted.

Dean W. E. Tilberg, for many years chairman of the Black Walnut district and a member of the York-Adams area council, outlined the benefits derived from having a two-county set-up for the scouts. "Under the York-Adams system, we secure (Please Turn to Page 2)

Washington, Feb. 7 (AP)—President Truman sent a three-man board after the facts in the soft coal dispute today, with orders to clear the way by Monday for further action against John L. Lewis under the Taft-Hartley Act.

With the nation's coal stocks at a critically low level, the fact-finding board called a meeting to map the whirlwind schedule imposed on them by Mr. Truman yesterday.

for $2,800 the scouting service that would cost us $10,000 or more if we tried to operate as a separate unit," he noted.

"There have been complaints about donating here to maintain a York office," Dean Tilberg said, "and it is easy to see how many would feel that since the money goes out of the county to a York office that possibly we do not get our full share back. This is an old story, but one that does need an explanation."

"We pay approximately eight percent of the cost of maintaining the York office. In return for that we get the full services of the office, plus the services of a full time man working in the county. We have the full use of the Boy Scout camp near Dillsburg, and we have the assistance of the York office whenever we need it."

Get $10,000 Job

"If we were to set up an office in the county to do the same job, it would cost us much more. We would have to hire an executive, which would cost from $3,600 to $4,000 or more; we would have to pay rent for an office, we would have to have an office secretary, we would have to purchase badges, books and the like that now are provided by the York office; we would have to set up a camp, provide transportation for our director, pay rental for scout movies and secure other training equipment. The cost for the service which we now receive for $2,800 would probably far exceed the $10,000 figure. There are scout districts as small as Adams county, but their annual budgets vary from $11,000 to $13,000 per year."

Attorney Edward B. Bulleit, chairman of the Black Walnut district, introduced Dean Tilberg and Mr. Dickson. Following the talks a motion picture on scouting was shown.

Reports presented at the meeting indicated that the Rotary club here has spent $145 in renovating the room it sponsors at the Warner hospital.

SOFTBALL LOOP LAYS PLANS FOR 1950 CAMPAIGN

Initial plans were laid for the operation of the Gettysburg Softball league for the coming season at a meeting of officers and team representatives at the Moose home Monday evening.

Six teams were represented at the meeting and two other teams sent word they would again participate. The eight teams which will probably operate this season include the Moose, Elks, Texas Lunch, Glenn L. Bream garage, Stanton Legion, Lentz Legion, VFW and Eagles.

A constitution drawn up previously by a steering committee composed of Clarence Bartholomew, Jack Taylor, Orlyn Hixon and Charles Lightner was discussed and several revisions made.

Although no schedule has been drawn and no definite starting date set for the league it was decided that for the first month of play the opening game will start at 7:15 p. m. with the second game getting underway 12 minutes after the conclusion of the first tilt. Three rounds of games will be played. After the first month of play the opening game will start at 7:30.

Provide Penalties
It was also decided to permit each team to sign a roster of 15 men in addition to the manager and that each team must field a full team for a game or forfeit the contest. A bond of $25 must be posted by each team which will be returned at the end of the season providing there are no forfeitures or other infractions against the league rules. An initial forfeit will cost a team $10 of its bond, a second forfeit $15 and a third forfeit will result in the team being dropped from the circuit.

A four-member committee will be named to conduct a booster ticket campaign prior to the opening of the season.

Charles H. Huber, Jr., was named by President Johnny Knox to contact organizations relative to purchasing the concession rights for the season.

Those attending the meeting included Knox, Huber, Johnny Grindler, Jack Taylor, Paul Anzengruber, Ralph Johnson, Orlyn Hixon, Charles Lightner, Lester Oyler, John German and Don Bream.

The next meeting of league officials will be held at the Moose home Monday evening, February 27.

Moose Bowlers Will Enter State Tourney

Ten bowlers of the Loyal Order of Moose of Gettysburg will participate in the third annual Pennsylvania State Moose Bowling association tournament which will be held from February 25 to April 30 at Lancaster. It was announced today by Michael Tate, captain of the Moose legions.

The local bowlers will have their five-man teams in action Saturday, March 25, at 8 p. m., while singles and doubles events will be bowled Sunday, March 26, at 4 p. m.

Taking part in the tournament for the local lodge will be the following: Team No. 1, Captain Michael Tate, Bud Knox, Joe McKenrick, Paul Miller and Harold Wentz; Team No. 2, Captain Ralph Johnson, Tony Clapper, Henry Herring, George O'Connor and William Holtzworth; singles and doubles, Charles W. Sterner and Basil Smith.

The only major all-winning team left in the nation drew more than 50 per cent of the first-place votes, getting 73 of 118 nominations by the country's basketball writers and sportscasters. The Crusaders have won 17 games.

Bradley (19-3) received only four votes for first but enough seconds and thirds to nudge Duquesne (16-1) from the runnerup spot. The Ducks lost Saturday to Louisville and didn't get a first-place ballot as a result.

Holy Cross scored 994 points in all, Bradley 720 and Duquesne 509.

Meet Bullets Here Wednesday Night

Coach Charles "Chick" Kennedy and his Dickinson College basketball players are seen here mapping some paper strategy for their game Wednesday night with Gettysburg in the Eddie Plank Memorial gymnasium. Dickinson will be seeking its eighth victory in 10 starts this season.

The freshman teams will meet at 7 o'clock.

JOHNSON WILL MEET WALCOTT

Philadelphia, Feb. 7 (AP)—Harold Johnson will try tomorrow night to accomplish what his father failed to do 14 years ago—whip Jersey Joe Walcott. Win, lose or draw for the 22-year-old Johnson in the 10-round bout at the Arena, it'll be something new in boxing.

Old timers couldn't recall any time where a fighter faced the same opponent his father previously had battled. Johnson thought it was about 20 years ago.

But a check of the record books disclosed he missed the date by six years. It was in June, 1936, in a Philadelphia park that Walcott met Harold's poppy—Phil Johnson.

Walcott was 22, the elder Johnson 30. Jersey Joe was campaigning regularly and successfully. He had knocked out Al Ettore in eight rounds at Camden's Convention hall on January 21 and two months later defeated Willie Reddish.

Jersey Joe knocked out Pop Johnson in the third round. The veteran Camden heavyweight recalled "I either broke his nose or gave him so bad a beating they had to stop the fight." The elder Johnson, according to Walcott, was a "tough man in the ring, from what I can remember, and weighed more than 200 pounds."

with ditto marks under Johnny's name.

So completely did the tall, deep-chested Chicagoan dominate the aquatic sport in the 1920's that today, a quarter of a century later, the nation's sports writers and broadcasters voted him, by an overwhelming margin, the outstanding swimmer of the half-century.

Weissmuller gathered 132 votes in this section of the Associated Press half-century poll. All the other swimmers and divers of the 1900-1949 era combined received only 102. It was a case of "there was no second."

There's a simple explanation. When he retired in 1929, Johnny held every world free style swimming record from 100 yards to a half-mile. They all have been wiped off the books since Weissmuller became a movie actor, but no swimmer ever has come close to the clean sweep that Johnny scored.

Hironoshu Furuhashi, the Japanese speedster whose new style and startling performances amazed observers at the National Outdoor championships last summer, topped the rest of the field with 20 points.

Land Bought for a New Avenue:
The Battlefield Commission has completed negotiations with the heirs of Henry Culp for the purchase of 41 acres of ground through their farm East of Gettysburg for the right of way of an avenue to be run due South from Liberty street to its terminus on East Middle street to the avenue at Culp's Hill. The price paid was $109 an acre. The avenue, we hear, will be built some time this summer and will be a fine addition to the many miles of excellent roadways which have been built by the Commission.

Mr. Livers' Account Squared:
There was more or less flurry in business and political circles over the affairs of Mr. John A. Livers, late County Treasurer. The report of the County Auditors confirmed the rumors that had been current on the street for some days that Mr. Livers' account showed a large balance due the county. This report fixed the balance at $6,254.90.

An examination of the records showed that Mr. Livers' bondsmen to the Commissioners are Francis Cole, Oliver P. Benner, Geo. J. Benner, F. J. Sneeringer, Jacob Raffensperger and Jos. J. Smith, and is in the sum of thirty thousand dollars.

On January 29th executions were issued against P. J. Sneeringer as suit of H. J. Sneeringer and Mary J. Sneeringer and Mary J. Sneeringer to the amount of $740. On February 7 execution was issued by O. P. Benner against John A. Livers and Francis Cole for $5,000. On same day L. K. Miller issued against John A. Livers and Francis Cole for $4,000. On same day attachments in execution were issued by L. K. Miller and O. P. Benner on their judgments, and on February 8 executions were issued by Rosanna Raffensperger and Catharine Raffensperger against Jacob P. Raffensperger for $1,425.

On Monday, February 12, Mr. Livers gave his check to Penrose Myers, his successor, for the amount due the county.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

ART AND LIFE

It is good to come by a book that is so fresh and new that it seems to have been published but yesterday—though it may have been published thirty, fifty, or a hundred years ago. Such a book is "The Art Spirit" by Robert Henri, one of the really great American artists. It first came out in 1923.

I know of no finer text-book for an artist to study, and yet it is a book to inspire any reader for it is all about life, and about every element that enters life to make it full, free, and satisfactory. Much of its contents is made up of sentences and thoughts that were taken down by students, as the master painted and talked, these filling out writings that the artist-author selected as most expressive. In the Foreword of the book Henri has written: "The subject is beauty—or happiness, and man's approach to it is various."

Time after time I have taken this book from my shelves and spent hours in its inspiring reading. For years the "Note-books of Samuel Butler" has been a favorite with me and this book by Robert Henri is a worthy companion. "Art," said he, "when really understood is the province of every human being. It is simply a question of doing things, anything, well. It is not an outside, extra thing."

George Bellows, another great American artist, once said in commenting upon the Henri book: "I would give anything to have come by this book years ago. It is in my opinion comparable only to the notes of Leonardo and Sir Joshua." One does not have to be a painter to be uplifted by this book for it is about the appreciation of beauty and its expression, and it is this that rounds out life to its happiest form.

The more we get acquainted with beauty, and see the undying art within it, the greater incentive we have to live and to distribute its fruits. We prove what we are in what we love and appreciate. The more we absorb from life the more we have to give away!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Nature's Rest."

TWISTER

Of all the things that twist and twirl
And into knots and tangles curl,
I'd call the worst I've ever known,
The cord upon the telephone.

These fingers eight and thumbs of mine
Have straightened out a fishing line,
And as a boy I learned to pull
The snarls from mother's knitting wool.

I've been a youngster's helpful aid
Who found his kite string disarrayed.

Although an awkward fumbler, I
Can loosen knots the shop clerks tie.

But still it troubles me to see
The phone cord shorter grow to be,
And bind itself in snarls so stout
They need four hands to straighten out.

BRITISH SLOW FBI PROBE OF ATOMIC LEAKS

Washington, Feb. 7 (AP)—Law-makers today blamed ponderous British legal procedure for hampering FBI pursuit of further atomic leaks in the Klaus Fuchs case.

They expressed fear that the delay may enable some suspects to skip this country.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover was reported to have told senators that this far he has been unable to get from the British full details of any confession that may have been made by Fuchs.

Records Not Released
Fuchs, 38-year-old German-born scientist accused of passing along top atomic—and some hydrogen bomb—information to the Russians, is believed to have had accomplices in this country.

But lawmakers said they were told that until the British Justice Department releases its records, the FBI may have to wait for leads—with the result that some suspects might get out of this country unmolested.

British Justice authorities are understood to be keeping Fuchs completely incommunicado—even from Scotland Yard.

Hoover With Senators
Hoover goes to Capitol Hill today for the third time (1:30 p. m., EST) to talk behind closed doors with senators—this time with the Senate appropriations subcommittee to which he first divulged some of the FBI's activities in the case last week.

Senator Bricker (R-Ohio), a member of the Congressional atomic committee, told reporters the 1943 Quebec agreement which the late President Roosevelt entered into

Announce Schedule

The following program schedule for the different age groups has been outlined: Age 12-15, studies in theory and practice of recreational activities as related to the development of Christian character and to group and church activities; Age 16-18, problems of high school youths embracing home, school, church, community, and friendship ties and interests; Age 18-upward, human relationships dealing specifically with out-of-school areas and situations as they concern persons, groups, community problems, needs and activities.

As these studies progress, teachers and groups will determine the direction the studies will take.

Those desiring further information and those groups wishing to take advantage of the program may communicate with Rev. Norman Wolf, Fairfield; William Slee, 22 Seminary avenue, Gettysburg, or Dr. Paulsen, Gettysburg seminary.

with Great Britain and Canada should be made public.

The secret pact was regarded by Bricker and others as pertinent to the case. They feel it may have opened the way for foreign scientists to come to the United States to work on the A-bomb without U. S. security checks. Bricker said he intended to ask the "proper witnesses" about it.

hope of returning to his native land as a pastor and teacher.

Mr. Ogasawara spoke on the subject "The Christian Church in Japan." He said: "There are two reasons why the Christian church in Japan has been persecuted. First, the enemies of western culture hoped to sever this bond between east and west; second, the spiritual doctrine of Christianity has a universal appeal which is very powerful." In speaking of the spread of communism in Japan, he said, "There are now 300,000 active members in the Communist party in Japan which is equal to the membership of the Christian church in Japan. Only the spiritual power of Christianity can reconstruct the mind of the people. The Japanese Christians despite untold hardships are sowing seeds with tears in the spring in the hope of getting a harvest with joy in the autumn." He concluded his address with a plea for prayers for the church of Japan that the few may meet the needs which are so great in the strength and through the power of Christ Jesus.

chman Fred Hummelbaugh, chairman of the safety committee, that the council has no control over the placing of a light at this intersection, and that council had asked the state three times to place one there and had been refused.

A consent signed by Mrs. Mark Eckert, Glenn L. Little and Rufus Reaver, for installation of curbside telephones at the taxicab stand on Center square was presented by Mr. Little, proprietor of Little's taxi service. Taxi operators last month petitioned council for permission to run cables from the Eckert building under the sidewalk to the new phones to be placed on standards at the curb.

Mr. Little said he had been informed that council was contemplating the placing of a tax of $10 per month on each taxicab, and said he considered the rate too high. "We consider ourselves as a general service to the public," he said. "Many times we are called on for emergency calls, such as taking doctors to the hospital when their own cars are in garages or won't start, and I feel the council should not ask as much as it might receive from meters in that area."

Called "Premature"

Mr. Little said the taxi companies have been contributing $50 a year to the borough, and that one year he gave $100.

Borough Solicitor Eugene V. Bulleit declared that Mr. Little's appearance and remarks of this question were "premature." The taxi proprietors were scheduled to meet with the highway committee, Bulleit said, and did not do so. The committee is not ready to make any recommendations yet, he added.

The highway committee was authorized to purchase new brooms for the street sweeper and up to 2,000 gallons of patching tar for the removal of the old jail wall.

The action was taken on recommendation of Councilman John D. Teeter, who said this method of taking down the wall will be safer than using hand labor. "Using manpower would also be a long drawn-out job," he said, "and somebody might get hurt." The material will be used as street fill.

Councilman L. D. Shealer, chairman of the highway committee, estimated that there are 1,000 tons of stone in the old wall. Some of the cut mason stone could be saved and used in repairing walls along the Tiber, he said.

Council authorized the placing of a street light on Gettys street. A letter was read by Councilman Teeter from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fidler requesting the light.

Approve New Crossing

No action was reported on the drafting of an ordinance to increase the rates of digging permits, and the highway committee was instructed to prepare this ordinance and present it at the next meeting of the council.

A resolution was adopted giving final approval to the new crossing over the Reading railroad tracks on West Lincoln avenue. The borough's share of the project, it was reported, was $777.87.

Council discussed last week's accident on the Carlisle street crossing when a Western Maryland freight train struck a truck owned by H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, but no action was taken. The borough solicitor said an investigation would be needed to determine whether any borough ordinance had been violated.

The borough highway department was directed to place flags on the light standards on Center square and one block each way for the Boy Scout parade on Saturday and the observance of Lincoln's birthday.

Council accepted an invitation from John B. Ware, former owner of the Gettysburg Water company, to attend a dinner at the Hotel Gettysburg February 20 to be given by Mr. Ware. The invitation was extended by John Long, manager of the Gettysburg Municipal Authority.
